client arrested on suspicion of attempting to murder his wife after allegation he stabbed her six time in the head.

make notes and copies of anything that is wrong.

it is a curiosity that maslow, the "father of american humanism," began his career as a behaviorist with a strong physiological bent.

drugs such as oxycontin and vicodin are at least partially responsible for more than 16,000 fatal overdoses each year.

are other tests that measure testosterone metabolites to add in the accuracy of diagnosing prostate cancer.

"young people play a very vital role in the eradication of the practice irrespective of if they come from practising communities or not."